

A TRANSFER PLAN OUTLINE. For preparing to enroll at the University of New Mexico from another college or university AND pursue a bachelor's degree at UNM.

New Mexico public institutions of higher education each have a 31 hour General Education Curriculum (GEC) for associate and bachelor degrees; twenty two (22) hours are fixed, with nine (9) are flexible. Students transferring to UNM have three (3) options:

- OPTION 1 - Complete the entire General Education Curriculum (GEC) at any New Mexico public college or university. Courses that meet another NM public institution's GEC area will satisfy the same area(s) for purposes of a degree at UNM. Please consult your institution's list of approved general education courses to select the correct ones.
- OPTION 2 - Complete a portion of General Education Curriculum (GEC) of any New Mexico public college or university. Then, complete the remaining courses in areas listed below at UNM.
- OPTION 3 - Complete all of the General Education Curriculum (GEC) at UNM OR complete the equivalent courses in areas below at any New Mexico public college or university. Remember that the courses below are UNM-specific, so select courses at your other college/university in consultation with an academic adviser.
